

Hanoi is a landlocked municipality in the northern region of Vietnam, situated in Vietnam's Red River delta, nearly 90 km (56 mi) from the coast.

Sarajevo is the capital and largest city of Bosnia and Herzegovina, with a population of 275,524 in its administrative limits

1. What do you think Hanoi translates to in English?

- a. in a lake
- b. between rivers
- c. on the sea

2. Sarajevo, was the first city in Europe to have what?

- a. an underground
- b. a train station
- c. a tram system

What else do you know about Hanoi and Sarajevo?

the oldest temple in Hanoi, Vietnam

Latin Bridge in Sarajevo

Match the words to the pictures.

(A) Food of Hanoi

- beef noodle soup (pho)
- rambutan dessert (chom chom)
- spring rolls (goi cuon)

- grilled pork (com tam)
- savoury yellow pancakes (banh xeo)
- sticky rice ice cream (kem xoi)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

(B) Architecture of Sarajevo

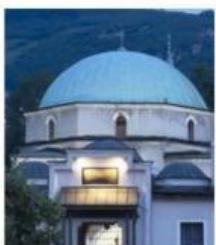

dome (Gazi Husrev-beg mosque)

Islamic design (the City Hall)

old town bridge

entrance (Gazi Husrev-beg mosque)

mosque (Ali Pasha mosque)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Have a quick chat with your partner about the pictures.

- Would you like to travel to Hanoi?
- Which Vietnamese food would you like to try first?
- Would you like to go to Sarajevo?
- Where would you go first, the mosque or the bridge?

Listen about Hanoi, Vietnam and Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina and fill in the gaps in the text.

Reader: For food lovers- Hanoi, Vietnam.

Reader: For quite a while now, Hanoi has been a _____ place for people who love eating just as much as they love to travel. It is a paradise for _____, where you can eat like a king without spending too much of your hard-earned _____. While also being _____, the range of food you can find on the busy Hanoi streets is unbelievable, _____ noodle soup, grilled pork, spring rolls, savoury yellow _____ and even some sticky rice ice cream for _____. If you are feeling a bit heavy after all that food, then why not have a leisurely _____ around the Hanoi streets and take in the gorgeous, centuries-old architecture that _____ all over the city.

Reader: For history lovers- Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Reader: If you love the past more than you love the _____, then Sarajevo is great for _____ nerds. A city with a story more than 500 years old, it dates to the Ottoman Empire. One of the best _____ to see an example of this type of architecture is the Gazi Husrev-beg Mosque. Built in 1532, the mosque is made up of several domes and an _____ which is decorated with complex but beautiful Islamic designs. If you like your history a little more modern then why not _____ a stroll across Latin Bridge, built in the 16th century, the _____ became known for being the place where the Archduke Franz Ferdinand was attacked, an _____ which many believe marked the beginning of the First World War.

Listen to the descriptions of Hanoi and Sarajevo and try to put the events in the correct order. Before you listen, can you guess which event happens in which city?

_____ visit a religious building

_____ walk slowly across a bridge

_____ walk slowly around the streets

_____ look at the beautiful architecture

_____ eat food from the street

Match the words to the definitions.

1. hard-earned (adj.)	a. do slowly and without rushing
2. range (n)	b. signalled
3. leisurely (adj.)	c. people who love and focus on one thing e.g. computers, history, boardgames
4. gorgeous (adj.)	d. achieved something through a lot of effort and hard work
5. nerds (n)	e. a variety of things of one type e.g. a range of bikes, a range of dishes
6. stroll (v)	f. walk in a relaxed way
7. marked (v)	g. really beautiful

Answer the question about the listening task.

1. Hanoi is a popular place for what kind of people? _____
2. What can you do after you eat in Hanoi? _____
3. How old is the story of Sarajevo? _____
4. What historic event happened on the bridge in Sarajevo? _____

Listen about these places and fill in the missing information.

Kos, Greece

Kos is the third largest island in Greece, and it presents mile after mile of beautiful coastline for those of us who prefer our activities a little more on the _____ side. To get a feel for the island why not start with a _____ boat tour, you can even add some snorkelling to _____ what lies below those crystal-clear _____. If, on the other hand, you would like to see the island more quickly then why not jump aboard a speedy jet ski and discover some of the remote _____ that you can find hidden away. For something more on the physical side, go to Paradise Beach. At this _____, heaven-like beach you can get your heart beating with some water skiing, hop along on the wonderful, Greek _____ and let all your worries drift away.

Maasai Mara National Reserve, Kenya

To go on a safari is a dream for many, and perhaps one of the _____ places on the planet to enjoy the safari experience is in Kenya. Seeing wild animals in their _____ environment is a _____ to treasure, and the range of animals you can see in the Maasai Mara is amazing. Lions, leopards, cheetahs, zebras and elephants are all residents here, meaning that safari-goers can get up close and _____ with the animals of their dreams. If you choose the right time of year, you may also be _____ enough to see the "great migration", as the animals _____ to and from the Serengeti in Tanzania. One added bonus in relation to the Maasai Mara is location, it is possible to get there by air and is only a 40 min _____ from the capital Nairobi.

Luang Prabang, Laos

The city that used to be the _____ capital offers something for everyone, and in 1995 it was proudly named the first *UNESCO World Heritage

Site in Laos. So, why not start your _____ with a bit of a hike, Mount Phou Si is located in the centre of the old town and while it is not the _____ mountain in the world, there are still 300 _____ that you must climb to get to the top. Once there, you can take in Luang Prabang's beautiful skyline. If you feel safer at _____ level, then why not check out the nature that surrounds Luang Prabang. A magical _____ on the Mekong River comes highly recommended. Whatever way you choose, you will be able to see the _____ of the surrounding wilderness and check out the daily routines of a number of _____ who live and work near the river.