

LANGUAGE IN ACTION

Defining and non-defining relative clauses

1 ✚ Circle the correct options.

- 1 The band that / what I listen to the most are called the 1975.
- 2 The logo that / who the company designed looked like a bird.
- 3 Tom and George became friends in Santiago where / when they are both learning Spanish.
- 4 They work for a company whose / who products are sold all around the world.
- 5 Lots of people buy products when / which they've seen the advert.

2 ✚✚ Complete sentences 1-5 with the correct non-defining relative clauses (a-e).

- 1 Sophie, c, is going to university next year.
- 2 These products,    , are sold on beaches in the summer.
- 3 Freddie used to live at 30 Wilson Road,    .
- 4 Our local football team,    , have just won the league.
- 5 The advertising campaign,    , will display the new logo.
  - a whose shirts are sponsored by my dad's company
  - b where a famous TV star lives now
  - c ~~who lives next door to us~~
  - d which come all the way from China
  - e which will run from September to December

3 ✚✚ Complete the text with the correct relative pronouns.

Ad-blockers are software programs <sup>1</sup> that stop adverts appearing on your screen. Many people <sup>2</sup> who use the Internet get annoyed with adverts <sup>3</sup> that pop up on the screen, but I don't mind them. I quite like seeing adverts from companies <sup>4</sup> whose products I like. The Internet is a place <sup>5</sup> where marketing companies try to market their brands, <sup>6</sup> which you might or might not like. I don't remember a time <sup>7</sup> when there were no adverts on the Internet. Do you?

4 ✚✚ Rewrite the sentences using a relative pronoun.

- 1 This is a product. This product sells in around 50 different countries.
This is a product that sells in around 50 different countries.
- 2 This advert is very funny. I've seen it about five times.
I've seen an advert about five times that is very funny.
- 3 Mr Cooper is very satisfied with our work. This means we'll pass the course.
Mr Cooper is very satisfied with our work, which means we'll pass the course.
- 4 The girl in my class speaks French very well. Her sister lives in Paris.
The girl whose sister lives in Paris speaks French very well.
- 5 London has lots of interesting places to visit. I'm going there for Christmas.
I'm going to London for Christmas, which has lots of interesting places to visit.
- 6 There's a boy in my chemistry class. He really gets on my nerves.
There's a boy in my chemistry class who really gets on my nerves.