

4.		Go this street and you will see the police station on your left.
5.		Go to the end of this road. Turn and the post office is on your right.

Exercise 2: Complete the sentences using the given words.

historic	comfortable	exciting	sandy	dislike	crowded
----------	-------------	----------	-------	---------	---------

- I love those beaches in my hometown so much.
- It is so to lie on the grass in the garden after a working day.
- The railway station is so because many people are waiting for their trains.
- Life here is very because the city never sleeps.
- I those noisy, narrow, and crowded streets.
- It's a city with many old buildings and statues.

Exercise 3: Choose the best preposition to complete the sentence.

- Henry often visits his grandpa the weekends.
 A. on B. at C. in D. A & B are correct.

2. There is some food the fridge.
A. in B. at C. up D. on
3. We will leave 10:30 Monday afternoon.
A. at - in B. on - in C. at - on D. on - on
4. Christmas is 24th December every year.
A. on B. in C. at D. from
5. They will finish the project May.
A. in B. on C. at D. A & B are correct.
6. There is a strange symbol the screen.
A. at B. in C. on D. by
7. an island, there is a man living a cave with his cat.
A. On - at B. In - on C. At - on D. On - in
8. We are going to have a party Christmas.
A. at B. in C. on D. B & C are correct.

Exercise 4: Complete the sentence with a correct preposition: in, on, at.

1. Linda wants to live and work London.
2. My father is working the farm.
3. I am standing the crossroad. I don't know whether to turn left, turn right or go straight on.
4. university, he was an excellent student.
5. Her grandparents live 217, Mountain Street Australia.
6. There is a funny cartoon TV at the moment.
7. At present, I am home while my friends are school.
8. He was the plane from New York.

Exercise 5: Put these short adjectives into the comparative form.

No.	Adjective	Comparative	No.	Adjective	Comparative
1.	old		11.	cheap
2.	near		12.	cold	