

Name: Class: Date:

A. Open the brackets using the appropriate forms of the verbs

1. I _____ (not/begin) to play until the game was nearly over.
2. Daniel _____ (eat) three sandwiches during the game.
3. The player _____ (catch) the ball.
4. She _____ (go) past us on her new bicycle.
5. Charlie _____ (bring) his chess pieces so we could play together.
6. Nobody _____ (speak) to the coach after the match.
7. The athlete _____ (not/know) if he could run any faster.
8. How much _____ (Carl/pay) for his shoes?

B. Circle the correct answer

1. I missed the bus because I waked/woke up late.
2. I couldn't remember the answer, but Caroline knew/knowed it.
3. Barney wore/weared his best trousers to the dance.
4. I stayed awake and read/readed the end of the book.
5. The cat nearly felt/fell out of the tree!
6. The wind blowed/blew so hard against the windows I thought they would break.
7. The dog drunk/drank all the water in his bowl.
8. My best friend gave/gaved me a book for my birthday.
9. Is this the person you speaked/spoke to yesterday?
10. Do you remember when they won/win the cup?
11. She was in the mall yesterday when she meet/met her cousin.
12. I run/ran all the way to the station.

C. Write the correct answer.

1. I was a bit disappointed when the _____ was cancelled at the last minute.
A concert B member C camera
2. The art of _____ is not easy to learn.
A actress B actor C acting
3. Shelley had a fancy dress party and everyone had to _____.
A laze around B go out C dress up
4. When did you last _____ the theatre?
A play B visit C act
5. It's not healthy to stay _____ on such a lovely summer day!
A recently B indoors C great
6. Spoons is a new _____ magazine for people interested in cooking.
A weekly B classical C competitive
7. Now this is what I call real _____!
A dancer B interest C entertainment

D. Fill in the gaps using the verbs given in the box

be fix go hang ride sing take write

1. The children decided to _____ three songs at the school concert.
2. 'What a terrible day,' he began to _____ in his blog. 'It all started in the morning'
3. How often do you _____ out with your friends?
4. Lots of teenagers _____ around at the mall at weekends.
5. Samantha wants to _____ very good at cooking but her food always tastes awful.
6. Did your dad _____ your skateboard when it broke?
7. My teacher encouraged me to _____ up a new hobby.
8. Jonathan likes to _____ his bike all the way to the shops and back again.

E. Match 2 parts of the sentences

- | | | |
|---|-------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. He practised all summer, and now he is really good | _____ | a to the chess club |
| 2. Frank belongs | _____ | b in a film |
| 3. Tonight, everyone is going | _____ | c to the coach |
| 4. Have you ever acted | _____ | d at the list |
| 5. I couldn't see my name when I looked | _____ | e to the cinema |
| 6. The whole team listened carefully | _____ | f at tennis |
| 7. Did you have a good time | _____ | g at the swimming pool today? |

F. Using the same words give in capitals at the end of each line to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line

1. In the 1950s and 1960s, many British people went on holiday to holiday camps like Butlins. They were called 'camps' but people didn't go _____ there, they stayed in small rooms called 'chalets'. CAMP
2. The people who worked at Butlins were called 'Redcoats' and it was their job to make your holiday as _____ as possible. INTEREST
3. There were a lot of different types of _____ to keep all the family amused. ENTERTAIN
4. Every morning, the Redcoats would sing the Butlins _____ at breakfast with all the campers, and that was just the start of the fun! SING
5. You could enter a sports _____, like swimming or running. COMPETE
6. For the artists among the campers, there was also a weekly prize for the best _____ of life in the camp. DRAW
7. For people who liked _____, there was a dance held every night in the big hall. DANCE

8. The camp _____ would take your picture so you would never forget your holiday.

PHOTOGRAPH

