Warm Up

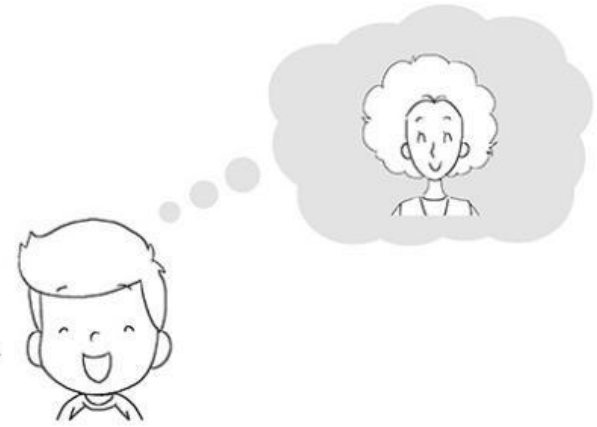

Listening for main ideas

To work out the idea, we need to group together the information we hear and decide what it is mostly about.

Example

You're easy-going and kind.
You always say 'Never mind'.
You're talkative and great fun too.
I'm never bored when I'm with you!
You are the best cook ever!
I love it when we cook together.
Grandma you're the best!
As your grandson I feel so blessed.

What is the main idea of this poem?

A. Grandma likes talking.
B. Grandma is a good cook.
C. Grandma is funny.
(D.) A wonderful grandma.

These are examples of things that make Grandma special. They are correct but not the main idea of the poem.

Listen and circle the correct letter.
