

Complete this email from one friend to another by putting in the correct positive or negative forms of the verbs in brackets. Use the present simple or will/won't. Use short forms.

Thanks for your message, it was great to hear your news. I'm very busy at the moment because my exams start next week. If I get<sup>0</sup> (get) the right grades, I'll start<sup>0</sup> (start) my university course in September. But if I <sup>1</sup> (do) well enough in them, I <sup>2</sup> (be able to) go to that university. So I'm working very hard.

Thanks for inviting me to come and stay with you during the summer. I <sup>3</sup> (do) it if the flights <sup>4</sup> (be) too expensive. I'm planning to get a job for a few weeks and I <sup>5</sup> (save) enough money to come if I <sup>6</sup> (find) one. It <sup>7</sup> (be) a pity if we <sup>8</sup> (see) each other, so I'll do my best.

Other news? Well, the weather's terrible here at the moment. If it <sup>9</sup> (improve), I think I <sup>10</sup> (go) mad! I hope you're OK. If you <sup>11</sup> (write) to me again soon, I <sup>12</sup> (reply) as quickly as I can.