

5 Listen and read. Match the paragraphs to the pictures.

Life was very different for my great grandmother, Stella. She could watch TV but she couldn't use a remote control. People started to use remote controls in 1950.

Stella couldn't cook food in a microwave but she could cook food in a pan. Microwave ovens appeared in 1946.

Stella couldn't talk on a mobile phone but she could talk to her friends on the telephone. Martin Cooper made the first mobile phone in 1973.

Stella could listen to vinyl records, but she couldn't listen to music on a mobile phone. The first mobile phones that could play music appeared about 20 years ago.

6 Read again and choose True or False. Correct the false sentences.

1 Stella couldn't watch TV.

True False

2 She couldn't use a remote control.

True False

3 She couldn't talk on a mobile phone.

True False

4 She couldn't cook in a pan.

True False

5 She could listen to vinyl records.

True False

6 She could listen to music on a mobile phone.

True False