Trip to Staunton Theatre

Okay everyone, now I need to say a few things about our visit to Staunton Theatre next Tuesday. You need to be here at school at six o'clock. We'll meet by the back gate because the coach can't stop at the front one. We (14)_____ later than six, as the play starts at 7.30.

We're seeing a very interesting play called The Party by Andrew McVitie. It's a comedy about a birthday celebration. His works can be difficult to understand so you need to read the play (15)_____. There is a copy for everybody which you can pick up from the school secretary. Do that as soon as you can.

I'll hand out the (16)_____ on the coach. We're all sitting together, in rows E and F. The full price of these tickets is £18, but you're lucky, because I (17)_____ a discount for the group, so you only have to pay £15.75 each. Could you let me have this money before Tuesday, please, and £3.50 for the coach.

Now, a lot of you have suggested going somewhere together afterwards. Well, the coach driver is willing to come back a bit later, but there isn't time for a (18)_____, so we'll go to a café I know nearby for an ice cream and a coffee. Don't forget to bring some money for that.

I've arranged for the coach to (19)_____ before it comes back to the school. So for those of you who need to take the bus home, it will be possible for you to get off at the bus station. If you decide to take a taxi, you should find (20)_____ there, or you can walk to the main square.

Right, any questions ...
