READING!

I really like celebrating my birthday! I was born in December, so I get to enjoy Argentina's warm summer.

Every December 25th, my family and I go to the beach to celebrate Christmas. It's special to exchange gifts and have meals with the ocean breeze around us. And because my birthday is on January 5th, we often stay longer to enjoy the sun and sea.

I love celebrating my birthday with friends. We might have a barbecue on the beach, play volleyball, or just relax under umbrellas with cool drinks.

I'm 25 years old now and I love going to the beach. I enjoy taking walks along the shore, taking pictures of the sunset, and swimming to stay fresh. While I enjoy beach celebrations with my family, I also like small gatherings with close friends, where we laugh and make memories together.
