ALAN, 24

We had the time of our life last weekend. Evan is one of my best friends and he turned twenty-five. I hired a DJ, who was incredible. He played good music from the beginning to the end. We danced and sang all night long. Imagine this: we were dancing and having fun when suddenly the sun started to rise. It was 6 am!

I also met some cool guys. Angela and Liam are Evan's colleagues. We are going to go out all together next week.

1. Did the DJ play good music?
2. Did Alan and his friends dance until midnight?
3. Were Angela and Liam Evan's colleagues?
