

Intermediate 10

FUTURE CONTINUOUS/PERFECT

by Julian Conde

I. Write C (correct) or I for (incorrect).

1. This time tomorrow, I will be flying to New York.
2. By the end of the week, she will have working here for ten years.
3. When you arrive, we will have finished watching the movie.
4. In three months, they will be building the house.
5. By the time you get home, I will have cleaning the house.

II. Complete with the correct form: future perfect or future continuous.

1. This time next year, I _____ (live) in France.
2. By the end of the month, they _____ (finish) the project.
3. When you arrive, we _____ (cook) dinner.
4. Within two years, she _____ (graduate) from university.
5. By the time you get home, I _____ (clean) the house.
6. This time tomorrow, I _____ (work).
7. By the end of the week, I _____ (complete) my project.
8. When you come back, we _____ (have) dinner.
9. In three months, she _____ (learn) to speak French.
10. By the time you wake up, I _____ (go) for a run.

II. Choose the best answer.

1. This time next year, she _____ around the world.
(a) will be traveling (b) will traveled
2. By the end of the month, they _____ enough money for a new car.
(a) will have saving (b) will have saved
3. When you call me, I _____ dinner.
(a) will have cook (b) will be cooking
4. In two hours, we _____ the project.
(a) will been finishing (b) will have finished

