

To use to or to be used to?

Complete the sentence with the correct form of to use to (for past habits) and to be used to (for things that you have become accustomed to) or to get used to (for the process of becoming accustomed to something.) You may need to conjugate the verb in brackets.

1. I _____ (eat) spicy food, so this dish isn't too hot for me.
2. We _____ (live) in a small apartment before moving to our house.
3. How long did it take you to _____ (drive) a manual car?
4. After living in the US for a year, he _____ (speak) English everyday.
5. We _____ (not, have) such long meetings at my old job. It took me a long time to _____ them.
6. She _____ (live) alone, so when she visits us, she gets tired of the noise.
7. He _____ (not, cook) meals at home, which is why he can't even boil an egg.
8. We _____ (be) surprised by the cold weather in the winter, but now we are prepared.
9. Our team _____ (work) online, so when the pandemic hit in 2020, we were well-prepared.
10. He _____ (find) it difficult to wake up early when he first started his new job. Now he _____ it.
11. I know you don't have a pet now, but _____ you _____ (have) a pet when you were a child?
12. They _____ (not, travel) by public transport in their hometown because they always drive.
13. I _____ (play) the piano a lot during my childhood. I don't play anymore.
14. My children _____ (not, speak) English together, but since they joined the international section at school, they only speak English.
15. Are you _____ (deal) with customers directly, or is this new for you?

A STAR