

9.- Match.

Arthropods They have soft bodies. There are three groups: cephalopods, bivalves and gastropods.

Molluscs They have segmented bodies.

Echinoderms They can't move

Annelids They have an external skeleton. There are four groups: insects, crustaceans, arachnids and myriapods.

Cnidarian They have jelly-like bodies and tentacles.

Sponges They have soft body with an internal skeleton. There are three groups: starfish, sea cucumber and sea urchins.