

THE ANCIENT BRITONS

Part C

Complete

The ancient britons were not Christians. They worshipped the Sun, the Moon and Nature. Their priests were druids, who said that the Oak and the Mistletoe were sacred.

The island of Anglesey was the Druid's holy island. When the Romans came, they soon found that the druids were leaders of the Britons. They went across to Anglesey and killed them.

THE ANCIENT BRITONS

Part C

True or False

The ancient britons were Christians.

They worshipped the Sun, the Moon and Nature.

Their priests were not druids.

Their priests said that the Rose and the Lily were sacred.

The island of Anglesey was the Druid's holy island.

When the Romans came, they soon found that the vikings were leaders of the Britons.

They went across to Anglesey and killed them.

THE ANCIENT BRITONS

Part C

Put the sentences in order

The ancient britons were not Christians.

They went across to Anglesey and killed them.

Their priests were druids, who said that the Oak and the Mistletoe were sacred.

They worshipped the Sun, the Moon and Nature.

When the Romans came, they soon found that the druids were leaders of the Britons.

The island of Anglesey was the Druid's holy island.

Complete de Vocabulary

island of Anglesey - druids - oak - mistletoe

