

The story of the hummingbird by Wangari Maathai

The _____ of the hummingbird is about this huge _____ being consumed by a _____.

All the animals in the forest _____ out and they are transfixed as they watch the forest _____ and they feel very _____, very powerless, except this little hummingbird.

It says, 'I'm going to do something _____ the fire!' So it _____ to the nearest stream and takes a drop of water.

It puts it _____ the fire, and goes up and down, up and down, up and down, as fast as it _____.

In the meantime all the other animals, much _____ animals like the elephant with a big trunk that could bring much more _____, they are standing there helpless.

And they are saying to the hummingbird, 'What do you think you _____ do?

You are too _____.

This fire is too _____.

Your wings are too little and your beak is so _____ that you can only bring a small drop of water at a time.

But as they continue to discourage it, it turns to them without wasting ____ time and it tells them, 'I am doing the ____ I can.' And that to me is what all of us should do.

We should always be like a _____.

I may be insignificant, but I certainly don't want to be like the animals watching the planet goes _____ the drain.

I will be a hummingbird, I will do the best I ____.

Word Bank

about any best big bigger burning can can can come down fire flies forest hummingbird little on overwhelmed small story water

This worksheet was created with the free spf.io cloze tool.