The diagram illustrates the fretboard of a guitar, focusing on the first and half positions. It features a central image of the fretboard with white lines representing frets. To the left and right of the fretboard are columns of musical staves, each containing a single note. Arrows point from text labels to specific frets on the fretboard:

- 1/2 Pos: Points to the first fret.
- 1er dedo: Points to the first fret.
- 2º dedo: Points to the second fret.
- 4º dedo: Points to the fourth fret.

The notes on the staves correspond to the positions indicated by the arrows. The left column shows notes for the first position (1er dedo) and the half position (1/2 Pos). The right column shows notes for the first position (1er dedo) and the half position (1/2 Pos).
