

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH ALREADY, STILL, JUST, YET

Aleja: Hi Peter! Haven't you finished the project _____? I don't want to push you, but the boss has _____ asked for it.

Peter: No, I _____ haven't been able to finish it. I've been too busy lately.

Aleja: I know, I have _____ explained to him how hard your schedule is, but he hasn't understood that we need someone else to help us.

Peter: Have you _____ shown him what you've done so far?

Aleja: Well, I have _____ talked to him about that. He was leaving to have lunch, so I told him that I needed to talk to him.

Peter: What did he say?

Aleja: He told me to tell you that he needed this project today. Besides, he said that he has _____ bought the tickets to travel to Bogota to show the project.

Peter: Whaaat? Let's finish with this now!