

1. Translate into Russian

2. outstanding
3. depict
4. appeal
5. reveal
6. hilarious

2. Match the phrases

1. Live up	a. powerful message
2. Convey	b. to the characters
3. Relate	c. to cover
4. From cover	d. twist
5. unexpected	e. to all the hype

3. Put the words from the box into the gaps.

Conveys, page-turner, mind-numbing, bookworm, hilarious

1. This book by Agatha Christie is a real _____. I read it in two days.
2. In the book, the main character gets into a lot of _____ situations.
3. I hate doing boring, _____ tasks when you have to do the same thing over and over again.
4. My sister is a _____. She always has a book with her.
5. If a book _____ a powerful message, it's a page-turner.

4. Use correct pronouns.

1. A printing press is a machine _____ produces books.
2. An e-book is a text _____ you can see on a computer screen or on an electronic device.
3. A librarian is a person _____ works in a library.
4. Agatha Christie is the author _____ books are translated into many languages.
5. She wrote a poem _____ was printed in a London newspaper.

5. Put the events in the order they appear in history.

- The Sumer used clay tablets and papyrus to write on.
- The Chinese used paper, ink and wooden blocks to print.
- During the Industrial Revolution people started making paper from wood pulp.
- The Romans used first book covers to keep manuscripts.
- In Europe books were copied by hand.
- Gutenberg invented the first printing machine.
- Books became accessible and the first libraries appeared.
- E-books can be read on different electronic devices