

Unit 24 Selection and use of coursebook materials

TKT Practice Task 24

For questions 1-7, look at the incomplete statements about adapting coursebook materials and the three options for completing them listed A, B and C.

Two of the options complete the statements correctly. One option does NOT.

Choose the letter (A, B or C) which does NOT complete the statements correctly.

1. If the material is too young for the age of the learners, we can
 - A. replace cartoons with photographs
 - B. find more motivating texts
 - C. introduce more kinaesthetic activities
2. If the material is culturally inappropriate, we can
 - A. make the material more challenging
 - B. adapt unsuitable tasks
 - C. use a different context for presenting
3. If the grammar revision in the book isn't enough for the learners, we can
 - A. write some extra material
 - B. change the interaction patterns
 - C. adapt exercises from earlier units
4. If the practice material is too easy for some students, we can
 - A. find extension or supplementary exercises
 - B. provide lists of key words
 - C. find new texts on other topics
5. If there isn't enough controlled practice material, we can
 - A. re-use the same material
 - B. extend exercises in the book following the same pattern
 - C. use the pictures in the book for further practice
6. If the practice material is presented without any clear context, we can
 - A. add visuals
 - B. suggest that learners consult a dictionary of culture
 - C. add a sentence or two to provide background
7. If there isn't enough reading skills development, we can
 - A. set up a class library of graded readers
 - B. asks students to read the texts aloud
 - C. find an appropriate supplementary skills book
