

Student's portfolio. Computer systems: hardware. software and sub systems

Name

Grade

2.4 Look at the following images of input, output and storage devices. Complete the table.

Device	What is it	Input, Output or Storage	Used for (Find a different answer for each device)
		Usually output but a touch screen is also input		playing sound/speech/music outputting system sounds
	mouse			input storage storing mobile phone contacts
	USB flash memory stick		backing up or transferring data from one computer to another	storage
	keyboard			output monitor/screen
	printer		printing work	storage CD or DVD storing applications and files	input speakers			output storing files, e.g. a movie
	flat-bed scanner		scanning important documents to store digitally	creating or editing a document
	SIM card			displaying text and images output
	Web cam	input	capturing a still or video image of the scene in front of it. Used when video calling over the internet	input hard disk/ drive
	headphones			storage selecting items on the screen