- 1 I was listening to my favourite singer yesterday evening. I just love music and art. I also enjoy reading articles about famous people on web pages and blogs. I think writing these articles is very interesting and I'd love to work for a magazine and write for the arts section. – Marta, 13 years old

- 2 I like helping people and I'd like to do a job that's useful. For me, the best job would be to protect the people in my city and the forest around it. I also love spending time in nature and I often walk in the forest near our town. There are forest fires every year now, so I'd like to protect the animals and trees, as well as the people! – Javier, 14 years old

- 3 I don't like travelling very much, but I would have to do that a lot in my dream job. What I love about it are all those numbers and the technology. You use these to make decisions during the flight. Planes are amazing machines. It's a very difficult job, but I'm sure I would be good at it! – Paulina, 14 years old
