THE CASK OF AMONTILLADO

Learning Materials: True or False

Write T if the statement is TRUE and F if the statement is FALSE.

1. The narrator of the story is Fortunato.
2. Montresor entices Fortunato into the dungeons by asking him to verify a particular wine.
3. According to Montresor, Fortunato is rich, respected, and happy.
4. "Amontillado" is the name of the estate where Montresor lives.
5. Fortunato begins to suspect foul play when Montresor becomes so interested in Forunato's health.
6. All the reader knows about the motive behind Montresor’s revenge is that a thousand injuries and an insult by Fortunato were done to him.
7. The last thing Montresor hears from Fortunato's tomb is "a succession of loud and shrill screams."
8. Montresor is the protagonist in “The Cask of Amontillado.”
9. The last line of the story, "In pace requiescat," (May he rest in peace) refers to Luchesi.
10. Poe is famous for perfecting the short story form.

LIVEWORKSHEETS