

Looking back

PRONUNCIATION

Work in pairs.
Role-play the conversation above.
Try to use appropriate intonation.

Mai: Ms Hoa, what is sustainable tourism?

Ms Hoa: Well, the aim of this kind of tourism is to protect the environment, respect local culture, and keep profits local.

Mai: Can you give me an example?

Ms Hoa: When travelling, we should not litter on the street. We should also be aware of the local traditions and respect them.

Mai: So is this kind of tourism similar to ecotourism?

Ms Hoa: Well, it's a form of sustainable tourism because it has a positive impact on the environment.

VOCABULARY

Choose the correct words to complete the conversation.

Mai: Ms Hoa, what is (1) mass / sustainable tourism?

Ms Hoa: Well, the aim of this kind of tourism is to (2) protect / damage the environment, respect local culture, and keep (3) benefits / profits local.

Mai: Can you give me an example?

Ms Hoa: When travelling, we should not (4) litter / impact on the street. We should also be (5) aware / responsible of the local traditions and respect them.

Mai: So is this kind of tourism similar to (6) ecotourism / mass tourism?

Ms Hoa: Well, it's a form of sustainable tourism because it has a positive (7) impact / craft on the environment.

GRAMMAR

Put the verbs in brackets in the correct forms.

1.

If I (be) _____ you, I (live) _____ with a host family so that I can learn more about the local culture.

2.

If we (work) _____ together, we (be) _____ able to reduce the negative impact of tourism on the environment.

3.

If we (allow) _____ more people to crowd the city centre, we (have) _____ to deal with environmental pollution in the future.

4.

If we (have) _____ enough money, we (go) _____ on an ecotour to Finland. Instead, we're staying in Viet Nam in the summer.