

UNIT 1. LESSON 5. LISTENING

I. Choose the best answer

1. What is the main point of the speech?

- A. Men should be the breadwinners.
- B. Women should stay home and raise children.
- C. Both men and women can be financial providers in a family.
- D. Families should never change traditional roles.

2. What is the advantage of both partners contributing financially?

- A. It creates more tension in the home.
- B. It allows for more flexibility in family life.
- C. It leads to less communication between partners.
- D. It removes all responsibility from men.

3. What is a potential challenge of having both partners work?

- A. There are fewer societal pressures.
- B. It can be difficult to balance work and family life.
- C. Men have less time to relax.
- D. It eliminates the need for childcare.

4. What is the speaker's hope for couples?

- A. That men take on all household chores.
- B. That women prioritize their careers over family.
- C. That couples can create a balanced partnership.
- D. That families return to traditional roles.

II. True or False

- 1. The speaker believes traditional family roles are outdated.
- 2. Both partners working automatically leads to a happy family.
- 3. Couples should avoid discussing expectations for housework and childcare.
- 4. Sharing financial responsibility can create more opportunities for families.