

Arrange the sentences in the correct order.

NEW YORK WENT DARK
‘The power cut lasted for four hours,’ said Joe Black, a firefighter officer.
‘It went completely dark and I couldn’t see or hear anything,’ he added.
Mark Kapinski, from Brooklyn New York, was walking from football practice when the power cut happened.
A power cut hit New York last night.
‘So, I decided to sit down on a bench to look at the stars.’
‘Luckily, there were no accidents happened during that time.’
The police and firefighters worked through night to control the situation.
‘I was walking home from my football practice when all the lights went out,’ he said.
Mark also said ‘I was not frightened – at all! I was excited because it was a beautiful night with a lot of stars.’	