

How to cut youth unemployment in a fast-changing jobs market

Vocabulary

1. Match the words with their definition. There is an extra definition which you do not need to use.

a paradox || a mismatch || mechanization || shortage || assessment || career path || to acknowledge || apprenticeship || affordable || state-funded

- 1) someone's early experiences in a particular type of work or activity:
- 2) a statement consisting of two parts that seem to mean the opposite of each other, or the use of this kind of statement in writing:
- 3) the process of making a judgment or forming an opinion, after considering something or someone carefully:
- 4) to accept or admit that something exists, is true, or is real:
- 5) cheap enough for ordinary people to obtain:
- 6) progress or an instance of progress in science, technology, human knowledge etc.:
- 7) a difference or disagreement between two facts or aspects of a situation
- 8) the money is provided by the government:
- 9) when machines are gradually being used to do something that was previously done by people or animals:
- 10) a lack of something that you need or want:
- 11) the way that someone takes to achieve something:

2. Complete the following sentences with a word in the proper form from the previous exercise. There are three extra words which you do not need to use.

- 1) Refugees are facing serious food and fuel .
- 2) She won't that there's a problem.
- 3) He decided to embark on a new .
- 4) There is always a certain between theory and reality.
- 5) The investigation was reopened after careful of new evidence.
- 6) She was elected party leader without serving the normal political .
- 7) We get this apparent of people migrating to an area that has very high unemployment.