

Chapter 5: Asking/Giving Opinion and Showing Agreement/Disagreement

Name : _____
Class : _____
Number: _____

I. Read the conversations below and identify the expression used in it!

1. Jane : What do you think of the story?
Jake : I think it's very interesting. I want to read it again.
2. Helen : What's your opinion on this painting?
Peter : In my opinion, it doesn't look natural.
3. Prince : Eating fruits and veggies can make us healthier.
Eddie : That's right. We can be in a good shape.
4. Paula : How do you feel about this museum?
Sandy : To me, it's the greatest museum I've ever visited.
5. Jeff : We should perform Romeo and Juliet in the school play.
Rose : I don't think so, Jeff. We need something different.
6. David : The football game last Sunday is awesome!
James : I wouldn't say that. It was not their best performance.
7. Peter : How do you feel about our classroom??
Wanda : In my opinion, we need to decorate our classroom.
8. Maria : Be careful in choosing the beauty products.
Kelly : That's right! Some can be harmful to our body.
9. June : I try a new fried rice recipe. Have a try!
Fiona : If you ask me, your fried rice is a bit spicy.

English Class

Students Worksheet

8th
GRADE
STUDENTS

10. Ms. Rose : Because you are teenager now, you have to take care of your skin.
Mona : I think so. I have some acnes on my face.

II. Look at the pictures! Complete the conversations below using the correct expression of asking or giving opinion!

1. Kelly : What's your opinion on my new blue dress?

Jane :

2. Dona :
Shelly :
the school.

: If you ask me, it will be the trendsetter in

3. Barney : What do you think of these?

Lucas :

4. Austin :
Stuart : I believe that it will make our teeth clean and healthy.

5. Prince : What do you think about taking shower twice a day?

Eddie :

English Class

Students Worksheet

8th

GRADE
STUDENTS

III. Complete the conversation below with the correct expression of showing agreement/disagreement!

1. Rose : The service in this restaurant is very bad.

Stuart : It served me well yesterday.

2. Tony : So, what do you think if we go camping for summer holiday?

Bruce : It will be a great summer!

3. Selina : Have you watched this movie?

Joyce : Yes. I think the movie is very good. How about you?

Selina : The movie is boring.

4. George : At this time, we should wash our hands often to avoid harmful bacteria.

Paul : We also need to wear mask when we meet other people.

5. Wendy : This is Borobudur temple. From what I read, It's a Hindu temple.

Teddy : That is a Buddhist temple.