Read the text about learning something new. Are the statements True (T) or False (F)?

Learning through our lives

We went out on the streets and asked five people what they would like to learn. Here are their replies ...

Nick: I love dancing. I can dance salsa, but I would like to learn a new dance. Dancing is so much fun. It's good for your health, but also it is a good way of meeting people. I met lots of my friends at dance classes.

Joan: I don't have lots of time to learn something new. At the moment, I'm studying at university. I am studying law and I am learning a lot. It's really hard and it takes up a lot of my time. I am always in the library!

Hannah: I already speak three languages – English, French and Polish. So, I don't think I'd like to learn another language. I don't play many sports, so I'd like to do that. Maybe something like tennis or football, so I can play with people and not alone.

Thomas: My dad and I are both bad at cooking but we want to learn. We're starting a course tomorrow at 8 p.m. at a college! I love eating Mexican food. There is a really good Mexican restaurant in town. I would like to learn how to make good Mexican food like they do.

Sue: I don't really want to learn a new skill, but I need to. My son has moved to Australia, and I need to speak to him online. I am not very good at using computers, so I would like to learn how to use computers. I think there are free courses for older people like me.
