

There is / There are

1. Choose the correct word:

There is / There are a chimney in the living room.

There is / There are a clock in the living room.

There is / There are four pillows in the living room.

There is / There are a rug in the living room.

There is / There are books in the living room.

There is / There are a picture in the living room.

There is / There are a cat in the living room.

There is / There are stairs in the living room.

There is / There are a flower in the living room.

There is / There are lamps in the living room.

2. Write the sentence in the correct order:

a rug / There is / in / the living room.

in / living room. / flowers / the / There are cat / the / in / There is / a / living room.

the / books / There are / living room. / in

3. Change the sentence into a question and choose the answer:

+ There is a fridge in the kitchen.

? _____

Yes, there is / No, there isn't

+ There are two bins in the kitchen.

? _____

Yes, there are / No, there aren't

+ There are shelves in the kitchen.

? _____

Yes, there are / No, there aren't

4. Transform the positive sentence (+) into a negative (-) and a question (?)

+ There are flowers in the kitchen.

- _____

? _____

+ There is an oven in the kitchen.

- _____

? _____

+ There are chairs in the kitchen.

- _____

? _____