ADVERBS TO MODIFY ADJECTIVES!

In the audios, some speakers use the adverbs VERY and REALLY to modify the adjectives and intensify them. Listen again and complete with the adjectives they mention:

SPEAKER 1:

My favorite room is my bedroom. It is small, but very ....

SPEAKER 2:

There is a really .... table in it and six chairs.

There is also a really ... lamp from Japan and there is a big expensive rug from Turkey on the floor. It is really ...

It's a really ... room I think.

SPEAKER 3:

It's really... and it has a double bed and a big sofa.

There's a really ... fridge for drinks and snacks.

NEGATIVE FORMS!

Go back to the first activity and write sentences in the negative form for the objects that are not there in the rooms. For example: "There isn't a sofa in Room 1"
