

YEAR 4 REVISION

1. Write 'T' for every true statement and 'F' for every false statement in the brackets given.

- a) Mango tree is an example of non-flowering plant.
- b) Thermometer is used to measure temperature accurately.
- c) Ceramic is used to make clothes, towels, sheets and curtains.
- d) Snakes are invertebrates because they have backbones.
- e) Both plants and animals cannot live without water.

2. Match the statement in Column A with the correct words in Column C and write the correct answer in Column B

| Column A                                                                                    | Column B | Column C |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| a) It is a property of a metal where it can be pulled apart or pressed together without breaking.  |                 | sink            |
| b) It is usually shorter than trees and have many branches.                                        |                 | temperature     |
| c) It is a property of a rock where when it is placed in water, it will go to the bottom of water. |                 | thermometer     |
| d) It is used to measure the temperature accurately.                                               |                 | shrubs          |
| e) It is a material that comes from trees, used for furniture.                                     |                 | strong          |
| f) It is the measure of the degree of hotness or coldness.                                         |                 | woods           |