

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM

Have a look at the following words and concepts. Which of them are positive and which ones are negative?

sustainable, automatic behaviour, non-viable, mindfulness, awareness, refillable bottles, mindlessness, reef-friendly, greenwashing

POSITIVE:

NEGATIVE:

Let's watch a short video with some tips for responsible travelling. Then, do the comprehension quiz below:

1) What is sustainable travel?

- a. Travelling with no environmental impact.
- b. Travelling with the intention of supporting local communities and the environment.
- c. Travelling during the off-season.

3) What should travelers look for to avoid "greenwashing"?

- a. Recognizable sustainability certifications.
- b. Luxury accommodations.
- c. Fast food restaurants.

5) Which eco-friendly practices are recommended for travelers?

- a. Using disposable plastic materials.
- b. Carrying printed materials for guides.
- c. Using reef-friendly sunscreen and refillable water bottles.

2) How can you lower your carbon footprint when travelling?

- a. By choosing alternative destinations with different activities.
- b. By using public transport or bikes.
- c. By flying during peak seasons.

4) What type of experiences should travelers aim for?

- a. Global experiences.
- b. Local experiences, including community-based tourism.
- c. All-inclusive resort experiences in nature.