

We're going to explore popular superstitions from around the world. To do this, let's match the sentence halves ( 1 to 6) with (a-g).

There's an extra option.

- |  |                                    |
|--|------------------------------------|
| 1. If you break a mirror,                                    | a) if you knock on wood            |
| 2. If you walk under a ladder,luck                       | b) you'll have seven years of bad  |
| 3. You'll ward off bad luck                                  | c) paint will fall on your head    |
| 4. If you find a four-leaf clover,                           | d) if you open an umbrella indoors |
| 5. You will have bad luck                                    | e) you will have good fortune      |
| 6. If you eat gnocchi (ñoquis) on the 29thof every month | f) your marriage will fail         |

g) you will improve your financial situation

