

WRITING (45 minutes)

Part 1

You must answer this question.

Write your answer in about 100 words on the answer sheet.

Question 1

Read this email from your English-speaking friend Alex and the notes you have made.

The image shows a digital email interface with a dark grey header bar. On the left is a white envelope icon, and to its right, the word "EMAIL" in white capital letters. Below the header, there are two input fields: "From:" with "Alex" and "Subject:" with "Running". The main body of the email is a white text area. It begins with "Hey," followed by a message from Alex: "I'm glad you can come to my house to go running with me and my older sister next weekend." A handwritten note "Me too!" is written next to the first sentence. Below this, Alex continues: "There's a big park near my house and we usually go there to run for about 5 km. Is 5 km a good distance for you?" A handwritten note "Tell Alex" is written next to this sentence. Another handwritten note "Suggest ..." is written next to the following sentence: "My sister and I had planned to pick you up, but her car broke down yesterday. I hope it won't be a problem for you to get to my house." A handwritten note "Don't worry because ..." is written next to this sentence. The email concludes with "We'll probably get hungry. My mum wants to know what food she can make for us to eat. Any ideas?" and "See you soon," followed by "Alex" at the bottom.

Write your email to Alex using all the notes.

Part 2

Choose one of these questions.

Write your answer in about 100 words on the answer sheet.

Question 2

You see this announcement on an English-language website for young people.

Articles wanted!

Learning outside school

What kinds of things can young people learn when they're not at school?

How can these things help young people when they're at school?

The best article answering these questions will win a prize!

Write your article.

Question 3

Your English teacher has asked you to write a story.

Your story must begin with this sentence.

I came out of the shop and I saw my friends walking towards me.

Write your story.