IDIOMS ABOUT RELATIONSHIPS

1) Choose the appropriate idiom from the list to complete the text.

"This is what I know. Mark and Sarah had been dating for a few weeks, and immediately they started to [1] get on like a house on fire. They had similar interests, laughed at the same jokes, and just seemed to [2]_____. However, last week, things took a turn. Apparently, they had a big argument about Mark's secret plans with another girl. Sarah felt betrayed, of course. He was [3]_____ her all along! Clearly, they were not [4]_____ about their relationship, since Mark told her that he was not ready to commit yet. Surprisingly, Sarah is still seeing Mark, and is trying to [5]_____, but they constantly have fights over it. I think she should [6]_____ right away. Talk about a [7]_____!"

IDIOMS:

- on the same page
- ~~get on like a house on fire~~
- stormy relationship
- two-timing
- go with the flow
- cut loose
- speak the same language

2) Listen and check your answers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS