

PAST SIMPLE - PAST CONTINUOUS

-Read the following story and complete the blanks using the verbs in bracket in the correct form.

Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Timmy. He _____(live) in a small village. One sunny day, while Timmy _____(explore) the forest near his house, something extraordinary _____(happen).

While Timmy _____(walk) along the narrow path, he _____(notice) a peculiar tree. Its branches _____(twist) and _____(turn), almost as if they were dancing in the breeze.

While he _____(look) at the enchanted tree, he _____(hear) a rustling sound nearby. Timmy _____(follow) the noise. To his amazement, he _____(discovered) a group of woodland creatures. They _____(prepare) for a celebration.

The rabbits _____(hop) joyfully, while the squirrels _____(gather) acorns for the feast. Timmy _____(be) surprised!

He _____(wish) for the ability to talk to animals. After a few seconds, Timmy _____(could) talk to animals!

Timmy embarked on countless adventures with his new ability. He chatted with birds, laughed with rabbits, and shared stories with squirrels. The forest became his playground, and the animals his dearest friends.

