

Demonstrative adjectives

Hello! My name is Juliet Smith and I am a History teacher. I live in _____ (this / these) small town. The name of it is Forestville. I like living in _____ (that/ this) place because I have my family here. _____ (that / those) houses that you can see are of my parents, but I live with my husband and children in the first house. What I like of my house is _____ (those / that) big tree next to my house and all _____ (this / those) flowers around my house.

_____ (those / this) is my family! My husband's name is Richard and he is a pilot. He likes _____ (these / that) profession and I like it too. _____ (that/ those) boys that you see in the picture are my sons. One is Alex and the other is Sam. Finally we have Ann; she is 7 years old and likes playing in the garden. Ann likes _____ (these / this) picture because we look very happy and she always says: “_____ (this/these) are my brothers, _____ (this / these) is my dad and _____ (this/ these) is my mom”.

_____ (this / these) is my class and _____ (that/ those) are my students. _____ (that / those) book in my hand is the history workbook and _____ (that / those) notebooks on my desk are the homework of my students. I love _____ (this/ that) profession because I like history and I like teaching.

Well, _____ (that / those) is all!

