May, 16th

Participle Clauses

Дієприкметникові звороти

надають інформацію про іменник

починаються з

V*ing*
(замінює АКТИВНЕ дієслово)

V3
(замінює ПАСИВНЕ дієслово)

I saw three men arguing about a taxi.

My uncle bought a pen made of gold.

Underline one participle clause in each sentence.

1. I bought a copy of Twilight signed by the author.
2. I can see three cyclists not wearing helmets.
3. She keeps getting emails from companies wanting to employ her.
4. Three paintings stolen from the National Gallery have been found.
5. This class is only for students studying nineteenth-century literature.
6. His autobiography, published in 1931, was called Far From Home.
7. I asked some girls standing outside the hotel to take a photo of us.
8. We remind passengers that any luggage left on the platform will be destroyed.
9. This book is a useful guide for students not living at home.
10. We stayed at an amazing hotel room decorated to look like a space capsule.

Circle the correct past or present participle form to complete the participle clauses.

1. We stayed in a villa belonged / belonging to my grandparents.
2. These scientists have designed a car powered / powering by solar energy.
3. He jumped from a train travelled / travelling at nearly 100 km/h.
4. The men decorated / decorating our house have made a real mess of the furniture.
5. They spent the night in a traditional Mongolian tent known / knowing as a yurt.
6. The police arrested a man taken / taking photos of the military base.
7. The tourists saw a message written / writing in large, white letters on the cliff.
8. His flat is full of old furniture given / giving to him by his grandfather.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Combine the two sentences using a participle clause.
Sometimes you need to add the clause in the middle of the sentence.

1. We visited a palace. The palace was built 400 years ago.

2. Astronauts get homesick. They spend weeks in space.

3. I lost a watch. It belonged to my cousin.

4. A man sat down next to me. He smelled of coffee.

5. The debates will help voters to decide. They will be shown live on TV.

6. He gave me a small box. It contained a key.

LIVEWORKSHEETS