Date: _____

Text 2 A Read the leaflet.

King's Bakery

About us

King's Bakery opened in North Point in 1982. We moved to Wan Chai ten years later. We start baking at 4:30 a.m. every day and don't stop until 9 p.m. Pick up our list of baking times and be first in the queue for your favourites! We have fifteen different types of bread, including long, thin French baguettes and round, flat Indian naans. We have many types of desserts — from sweet, sticky brownies to delicate, light cream puffs. Your only problem is … what will you choose?

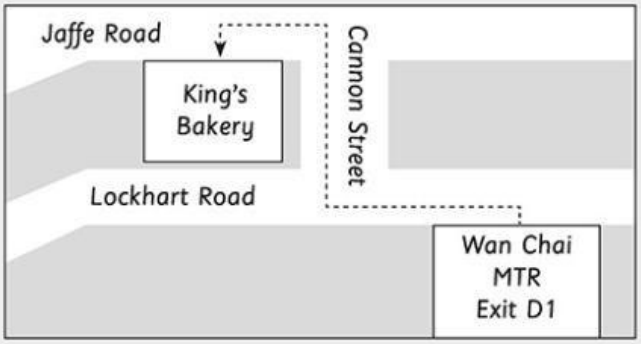

Opening hours

6:30 a.m.–12:30 a.m. daily

Contact us

Telephone: 2888 8888
Address: G/F, 498 Jaffe Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong

What our customers say

This is my favourite bakery in Hong Kong. The long queues outside tell me I am not alone in thinking this! Try to go at four in the afternoon — they bake a new batch of fresh egg tarts at this time. See you there!

Ted Lau, Central

I heard about this place on TV in America! It is very famous! I visited it when I was on holiday in Hong Kong. The muffins were delicious. My husband tried all the flavours — carrot, blueberry and chocolate!

Barbara Allen, New York

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Date: _____

B Read the leaflet again and write short answers.

1 Where was King's Bakery first opened? _____

2 When did King's Bakery move to Wan Chai? _____

3 Who was a tourist in Hong Kong? _____

C A customer is at Wan Chai MTR station. She calls the bakery and asks for directions. Finish what the shop assistant says.

Go out of Exit D1. Turn ❶ _____ . Walk ❷ _____ ahead. Then turn ❸ _____ into ❹ _____ . Go straight ahead. Turn ❺ _____ into ❻ _____ . Our bakery is on your ❼ _____ .

D Blacken ● the circles.

1 Ted wrote about the long queues at the bakery because he wanted ____ .

- ○ A. to warn people not to go there because it is very busy
- ○ B. to explain why he likes the bakery
- ○ C. to show that the bakery is very popular
- ○ D. to tell people to wait for the fresh egg tarts

2 Which sentence is NOT true?

- ○ A. You can buy more than twelve different types of bread.
- ○ B. King's Bakery opens for 18 hours every day.
- ○ C. King's Bakery sells three different types of muffins.
- ○ D. You can get fresh egg tarts at 4 a.m.

☆3 Why does the writer say 'Your only problem is … what will you choose?'?

- ○ A. He thinks there are not many things to choose from at the bakery.
- ○ B. He thinks the bakery should sell other types of food.
- ○ C. He thinks it is difficult to choose a place to eat.
- ○ D. He thinks the bakery sells a lot of yummy things.

Read the previous sentence to help you guess the answer.

LIVEWORKSHEETS