THE TOWNS OF WALES

Wales is the place where people speak English and also the much older language of Welsh. It's a land of beautiful mountain _____<sup>(1)</sup> and music.

The _____<sup>(2)</sup> city is Cardiff, but in Wales there are many other exciting places to _____. One of them is Machynlleth, a small, picturesque market town with a _____<sup>(3)</sup> of around 2,000. It offers arts and crafts, mountain bike trails, wonderful scenery. 40 kilometres north is Portmeirion, a complete Italian hill town, built by an eccentric British who had a passion for Italian architecture. Inland from Portmeirion is Snowdonia, a mountainous area that is a centre for energetic _____. Snowdonia is also excellent for canoeing and walking. A nice place there is Betws-y-Coed, a charming _____<sup>(6)</sup> built from local stone that has many things to offer tourists.
