IN LOVE WITH MUSICAL THEATRE

You can do many things to have a good time, for instance do sports, go camping, watch a movie, play videogames, and so on. Today we are going to talk about musical theatre. Musical theatre is not a thing of Broadway or the West End in New York and London respectively. In the centre of many cities of Spain there are also different theatres. Currently, in Madrid you can see The Lion King The Musical.

Everybody knows what the Lion King story is about but if you want to know further, there is a short video of the Lion King The Musical on Youtube. In this promo video you can see the characters performing on stage at the Lope de Vega Theatre in Madrid. The performers are not just singing; they are acting, dancing, and even doing acrobatics. You can also see the masks and costumes that they wear and the marionettes and puppets they use. Some of these puppets are really big, like the one of an elephant, or the one of a giraffe.

There are other famous musicals in Spain right now. For example, Matilda The Musical based on the book Matilda written by Roald Dahl. In this musical there are a lot of children acting on stage. Another one, also based on a book by Dahl, is Charlie and The Chocolate Factory. You probably remember the film with actor Johnny Depp as Willy Wonka. One musical wholly created in Spain is The Neverending Story. It is also based on a book of the same name by famous writer Michael Ende. In all these productions kids are the main actors.

In conclusion, musical theatre is becoming an important choice of leisure.
