

INFINITIVE of PURPOSE

1. Join two sentences, using an infinitive of purpose!

- a) Dace went by bus. She wanted to save money.
- b) Paul did some exercises. He wanted to be healthy.
- c) I phoned my mum. I wanted to invite her to dinner.
- d) My dad went to the market. He wanted to buy some fruit.
- e) We used the computers. We wanted to play computer games.

2. Look and choose!

- a) He used his camera (to take, taking, take) some photos.
- b) She went to the shopping centre (buy, to buy, bought) new shoes.
- c) They met at the restaurant (had, have, to have) dinner.
- d) John turned on his radio (to listen, listened, listen) to music.
- e) A girl use a scissors (cut, to cut, cutting) her old magazines.
- f) They use their keys (to open, open, opens) the door.
- g) We go to the park (play, to play, playing) basketball.