

Direct Objects

The direct object is the direct “receiver” of the verb.

It is the thing or person that is having the verb done to them.

Example:

Subject   Action Verb   Direct Object

Bob   shoots   a   Steven.

In the above example the action (shooting) is moving from Bob (the shooter) to Steven (the target).

Question 3

Identify the Direct Object in each sentence by rewriting it in the box provided.

- 3.1. Emily strokes Mittens the kitten.
- 3.2. Mittens bites Emily playfully.
- 3.3. Mittens thanks Emily for its food by meowing.
- 3.4. Emily feeds Mittens high quality cat food.
- 3.5. Ali rides a horse.
- 3.6. The horse throws Ali.
- 3.7. Ali chastises the horse.
- 3.8. The horse kicks Ali.
- 3.9. Ali loads the tranquilizer gun.
- 3.10. Ali tranquilizes the horse.