

Uol: Migration
Subject: Technology and Innovation

Grade 4
May 2024

Migration

What is migration?

The _____ of a _____ (or animal), from one _____ to _____.

person	another	place	movement
--------	---------	-------	----------

Type T (true) or F (false) on the following expressions:

People migrate for different reasons
Albert Einstein migrated from Germany to the United States.
There are push factors and pull factors for a person to migrate.
A push factor could be poor economic conditions.
All immigrants reach success in their new countries.
Some people migrate to find work or to build a career.
Some people migrate to escape war or politics.
Migration started in the year 2000.
Migration has been always an important global issue.
Immigrants are all bad persons.
A pull factor can be economic, cultural, political and environmental.
A push factor could be politic oppression or war.
When people migrate, they face challenges and opportunities.
When a person leaves its country, it affects the society.
Migration also happens inside a county.
Immigrants are all illegals in their new countries.
Emigrant is the person that leaves its country of origin.
When a person migrates, it has to be by plane.
The people coming to a new country are immigrants.	