

Language at work 1

Choose the correct words to complete the conversation

lot many much some little few

A Are we driving to the meeting?
B Yes, but I need to get _____ petrol first.
A In that case, we should leave soon because we don't have _____ time.
B OK – I just have to send a _____ emails before we go.
A How _____ do you have to write?
B Only one or two.
A OK. Actually, I've got a _____ work to do, too.
B For the meeting?
A Yes, I've got to present a _____ of statistics from our research trip.

Language at work 2

Choose the correct words to complete the conversation

- 1 They don't drink much coffees/coffee.
- 2 I have a few information/questions for you.
- 3 I need a little suggestions/advice about this design.
- 4 There aren't many children/customer who buy this type of chocolate.
- 5 How much time/times do you have to work with me?
- 6 Not a lot people/of people work here on Saturday.
- 7 We've had a few/some bad news.