Reading

There was once a foolish old man who had a bag of gold. He dug a hole in the ground and put the bag of gold into it. Then he covered the hole with a big stone. He used to visit the hiding place nearly every day. He would take away the stone and put his hand into the hole to touch the gold. Then he would feel very happy.

One day he took away the stone and put his hand into the hole, but he didn't find his gold. Oh, "my treasure was stolen" said the old man. The old man felt angry and sad. His wife said to him "There is no reason for you to be sad. Your gold is useless to our family. You couldn't make us rich when you had the gold. You still have the hole. You can visit it whenever you like. All you must do is to imagine that your treasure be there."

1. What is the story Mainly about?

- A. digging a hole
- B. losing a treasure
