

- 1 Perhaps finding someone to replace her is proving difficult for him. difficulty

He appears .....
..... replace her.

- 2 I can't wait for the new theatre to be completed.

forward

I'm .....
..... the new theatre.

- 3 I really wish I'd paid more attention to his warnings.

little

I bitterly .....
..... to his warnings.

- 4 They are going to send us the tickets next week.

sent

I've arranged .....
..... next week.

- 5 'I forgot to postpone the appointment,' Robert admitted.

put

Robert confessed to .....
..... the appointment.

- 6 He said it was absolutely untrue that someone had lent him the money.

having

He categorically .....
..... the money.

- 7 It's not normal for me to have to start so early.

make

I'm not used .....
..... start.

- 8 The workmen think that it will take them until the end of the day to demolish the wall.

finished

The workmen hope to .....
..... down by the end of the day.