

1. Read the text:

Once, there was a king named George. He had a big problem: he couldn't talk well. His words got all mixed up! But then, a nice man named Lionel helped him. They practiced a lot, and guess what? The king gave a great speech!

2. Write the INFINITIVE of these past forms:

WAS/WERE

HAD

COULD

GOT

HELPED

PRACTICED

GAVE

3. These sentences are FALSE. WRITE them in the AFFIRMATIVE FORM:

1. King George VI didn't ascend the throne in 1936.
2. Prince Albert didn't solve his speech problem with the help of Lionel Logue.
3. Queen Elizabeth didn't hire Lionel Logue to assist her husband.
4. An extraordinary friendship didn't start between King George VI and Lionel Logue.
5. King George VI didn't speak confidently after practicing with Logue.
6. The nation didn't have a king in the end: King George VI.

4. Write a DIALOGUE between King George VI and Logue:Use present simple/ present continuous.Use can/can't or must/mustn't.

LOGUE:
KING GEORGE VI:
LOGUE:
KING GEORGE VI:
LOGUE:
KING GEORGE VI:
LOGUE: