

WOF/ The Dragonet Prophecy: Chapter 15-17

Answer:

1-10

11-20

21-30

31-40

41-50

1. What is the main reason Clay decides to watch Peril's fight with Horizon? a) To learn about Peril's fighting technique b) To cheer for Horizon c) To report to Queen Scarlet d) To rescue Horizon e) To study the arena layout
2. Why does Horizon flee when Peril approaches him in the arena? a) He recognizes Peril as a friend b) He is intimidated by Peril's presence c) He is trying to save the queen d) He wants to surrender to Peril e) He is searching for an escape route
3. What is significant about Peril's ability to inflict burns without breathing fire? a) She is using secret SkyWing techniques b) She possesses fire in her claws c) She has a natural resistance to fire d) She has mastered the art of illusion e) She controls fire with her mind
4. How does Horizon's attack on Peril differ from his initial reaction to her presence? a) He attempts to negotiate with Peril b) He uses his tail to communicate with Peril c) He tries to reason with Peril d) He engages in physical combat with Peril e) He seeks Peril's advice on fighting strategies
5. Why does Peril express surprise when Clay doesn't ask about her preference for killing? a) She expected Clay to be curious about her fighting style b) She assumed Clay would want to discuss combat tactics c) She anticipated Clay's interest in her personal motivations d) She believed Clay would inquire about her past experiences e) She thought Clay would inquire about her relationship with Queen Scarlet
6. What does Peril reveal about her past and her relationship with Queen Scarlet? a) Peril was abandoned by her mother and rescued by Queen Scarlet b) Peril's mother was executed by Queen Scarlet for treason c) Peril's twin was killed by her in the egg d) Peril was trained by Queen Scarlet to become a champion fighter e) Peril's unique abilities led to her being ostracized by other dragons
7. How does Clay feel about Peril's self-acceptance of her nature? a) He admires her confidence and self-assurance b) He sympathizes with her struggles and loneliness c) He questions the morality of her actions and beliefs d) He is intrigued by her willingness to follow Queen Scarlet e) He is indifferent to her perspective on her identity
8. Why does Clay propose himself as a replacement fighter for Starflight? a) He believes he can defeat Peril in combat b) He wants to protect Starflight from harm c) He seeks to prove his loyalty to Queen Scarlet d) He is confident in his combat abilities e) He hopes to negotiate for Starflight's release
9. How does Peril react to Clay's suggestion regarding Starflight? a) She agrees to discuss it with Queen Scarlet b) She refuses to consider Clay's proposal c) She expresses doubt about Starflight's abilities d) She questions Clay's motives for volunteering e) She promises to keep Clay's request secret
10. What conclusion can be drawn about Peril's feelings toward Clay based on their conversation? a) Peril is intrigued by Clay's bravery and honesty b) Peril is cautious but willing to trust Clay c) Peril is conflicted about her loyalty to Queen Scarlet d) Peril sees Clay as a potential ally against Queen Scarlet e) Peril views Clay as a threat to her relationship with Queen Scarlet
11. How does Clay feel about Peril's admission of preferring to kill him "fair and square"? a) He is relieved that she acknowledges the potential for a fair fight b) He is disturbed by her casual acceptance of violence c) He is reassured by her honesty and directness d) He is intrigued by her perspective on combat e) He is grateful for her consideration of his feelings
12. Why does Clay wonder if Peril is "as strange as he thought" after their conversation? a) He is surprised by her vulnerability and loneliness b) He is intrigued by her ability to switch between kindness and violence c) He is uncertain about her true intentions and motivations d) He is impressed by her willingness to disobey Queen Scarlet e) He is amused by her sense of humor and awkwardness
13. How does Clay feel about the possibility of being born with a predisposition for violence? a) He embraces the idea of accepting his true nature b) He rejects the notion and hopes for the ability to choose his path c) He is indifferent to the concept of inherent violence d) He is conflicted about his identity and desires e) He fears the consequences of acknowledging his

violent tendencies

14. What does Clay realize about Peril's vulnerability during their conversation? a) She is emotionally fragile beneath her tough exterior b) She struggles with feelings of inadequacy and self-doubt c) She longs for acceptance and understanding from others d) She is torn between loyalty to Queen Scarlet and her own desires e) She fears rejection and isolation from her peers
15. How does Peril's behavior toward Clay challenge his perception of her as a monster? a) She demonstrates compassion and empathy toward Clay b) She reveals her inner turmoil and conflicted feelings c) She engages in thoughtful conversation and introspection d) She exhibits vulnerability and insecurity in Clay's presence e) She expresses regret and remorse for her past actions
16. Why does Clay worry about Starflight's safety in the arena? a) He doubts Starflight's ability to defend himself without powers b) He fears Queen Scarlet's wrath if Starflight fails to entertain her c) He is concerned about Starflight's lack of combat experience d) He suspects Starflight may be targeted by other prisoners e) He believes Starflight's powers will be ineffective in combat
17. How does Peril's decision to visit Clay despite Queen Scarlet's orders reflect her character? a) She prioritizes her own desires and interests over loyalty to the queen b) She values her friendship with Clay more than obedience to authority c) She seeks to manipulate Clay for her own benefit and amusement d) She demonstrates her rebellious nature and defiance of rules e) She feels obligated to check on Clay's well-being despite the risks
18. What motivates Clay to request Peril's intervention on behalf of Starflight? a) His desire to protect his friend from harm b) His belief in Peril's influence with Queen Scarlet c) His fear of losing Starflight in combat d) His hope for a peaceful resolution to the situation e) His sense of responsibility as a potential fighter in the arena
19. How does Peril's revelation about her past influence Clay's perception of her? a) He empathizes with her struggles and feelings of isolation b) He is shocked by the extent of her traumatic experiences c) He begins to understand her actions and motivations better d) He feels sympathy for her difficult upbringing under Queen Scarlet e) He questions the morality of Queen Scarlet's treatment of Peril
20. Why does Clay feel conflicted about Peril's acceptance of her violent nature? a) He admires her self-assurance but questions the ethics of her actions b) He worries about the implications of embracing violence as a part of one's identity c) He struggles to reconcile his own feelings about violence and self-acceptance d) He fears the consequences of challenging Queen Scarlet's authority e) He is uncertain whether to trust Peril's motivations and intentions
21. How does Clay's conversation with Peril impact his understanding of his own identity? a) He begins to question whether his actions are determined by his nature or his choices b) He feels reassured by Peril's acceptance of her true self and considers embracing his own nature c) He becomes more confident in his ability to resist the influence of his upbringing and environment d) He realizes the importance of accepting oneself and embracing one's true nature e) He wonders if his friendships and alliances are based on genuine connections or survival instincts
22. What does Clay hope to achieve by asking Peril to intervene on behalf of Starflight? a) He seeks to protect Starflight from harm in the arena b) He aims to test Peril's loyalty to Queen Scarlet c) He wants to demonstrate his own willingness to sacrifice for his friends d) He hopes to convince Queen Scarlet to spare Starflight from combat e) He desires to manipulate Peril into disobeying Queen Scarlet's orders
23. How does Peril's willingness to consider Clay's request demonstrate her character development? a) She shows compassion and empathy toward Clay and his friends b) She exhibits a growing sense of autonomy and independence c) She challenges Queen Scarlet's authority and asserts her own agency d) She acknowledges the importance of friendship and loyalty over duty e) She grapples with moral dilemmas and ethical considerations
24. Why does Clay hesitate to discuss Peril's vulnerability and loneliness with her? a) He is afraid of offending her or worsening her mood b) He worries about revealing his own vulnerabilities and insecurities c) He doubts the sincerity of her emotions and intentions d) He fears the consequences of probing too deeply into her past e) He feels uncomfortable discussing sensitive topics with her
25. How does Clay's interaction with Peril challenge his preconceptions about her? a) He discovers unexpected depth and complexity beneath her tough exterior b) He realizes that her actions are driven by a desire for acceptance and belonging c) He learns that her loyalty to Queen Scarlet is more nuanced than he previously thought d) He recognizes her struggles with identity and self-acceptance e)

He understands that her violent tendencies are a result of her traumatic upbringing

26. What does Clay's comparison of his own experiences to Peril's reveal about his character? a) He seeks common ground with Peril in order to empathize with her struggles b) He grapples with feelings of guilt and shame over his past actions c) He acknowledges the potential for redemption and change in both himself and Peril d) He fears the consequences of embracing his violent tendencies e) He questions the morality of his actions and beliefs in light of Peril's revelations
27. How does Peril's reaction to Clay's suggestion regarding Starflight demonstrate her loyalty to Queen Scarlet? a) She immediately agrees to advocate for Starflight's safety in the arena b) She hesitates but ultimately decides to consider Clay's request c) She refuses to defy Queen Scarlet's orders and rejects Clay's proposal d) She expresses doubts about Starflight's abilities but promises to discuss the matter with the queen e) She agrees to help Clay but warns him of the potential consequences of his actions
28. Why does Clay feel unsettled after his conversation with Peril? a) He is disturbed by Peril's casual attitude toward violence and death b) He is uncertain about his own feelings toward Peril and her intentions c) He worries about the implications of Peril's influence on Queen Scarlet's decisions d) He is conflicted about the morality of his actions and alliances e) He fears the consequences of defying Queen Scarlet's authority
29. How does Clay's decision to confide in Peril reflect his character development? a) He demonstrates trust and vulnerability in sharing his concerns and fears with her b) He realizes the importance of seeking help and support from unlikely sources c) He recognizes Peril's potential to influence Queen Scarlet's decisions and actions d) He acknowledges the complexities of his relationships with his friends and allies e) He grapples with moral dilemmas and ethical considerations in his quest to protect his friends
30. What does Clay's conversation with Peril reveal about the theme of identity in the story? a) It highlights the importance of self-acceptance and embracing one's true nature b) It explores the impact of upbringing and environment on individual identity c) It challenges stereotypes and preconceptions about characters based on their appearances d) It demonstrates the complexity of moral decision-making and ethical dilemmas e) It emphasizes the role of friendship and loyalty in shaping one's sense of identity
31. Why were three SkyWing guards sent to unchain Clay? a) To escort him to meet the queen b) To take him back to his prison cell c) To punish him for something he did d) To bring him food and water e) To release him into the wild
32. What was Clay worried about as he was being unchained? a) Falling from a great height b) Meeting the queen c) Being attacked by other prisoners d) Forgetting his friends e) Being left alone in the arena
33. Why did Clay stop asking questions as they flew him down to the arena? a) He was afraid of the guards. b) He was lost in thought about Kestrel and Taupe. c) He realized it was pointless. d) He didn't want to upset the guards. e) He wanted to save his energy for later.
34. What did Clay observe about Starflight's perch? a) It was occupied by another dragon. b) It was empty. c) It was too small for Starflight. d) It was in a secluded corner. e) It was near the entrance.
35. Why was Clay surprised by the portrait of Queen Scarlet in the large cave? a) It was larger than he expected. b) It was decorated with jewels. c) It was in a cave instead of a grand hall. d) It was surrounded by pools of water. e) It was the only decoration in the cave.
36. What did Clay infer about Peril's living conditions? a) She was kept in luxurious quarters. b) She was confined to a dungeon. c) She had to avoid touching certain materials. d) She was provided with comfortable bedding. e) She was allowed to roam freely.
37. Why did Queen Scarlet consider the war entertaining? a) It provided distractions for her. b) It brought her more subjects. c) It increased her wealth. d) It allowed her to travel. e) It made her more powerful.
38. What did Queen Scarlet imply about Peril's role in the war? a) Peril was essential for victory. b) Peril was being kept as a secret weapon. c) Peril was being groomed for leadership. d) Peril was being protected from harm. e) Peril was being punished for disobedience.
39. Why did Queen Scarlet dismiss Tsunami's concerns about the war? a) She believed Tsunami was too young to understand. b) She thought Tsunami's perspective was limited. c) She considered Tsunami's opinions irrelevant. d) She felt Tsunami was being disrespectful. e) She believed Tsunami was exaggerating.
40. Why did Queen Scarlet show the dragonets her wound? a) To intimidate them b) To gain sympathy c) To remind them of her power d) To justify her actions e) To distract them from asking more questions

41. What did Clay notice about Queen Scarlet's attitude toward Sunny? a) She showed affection toward Sunny. b) She planned to use Sunny as a gift. c) She was indifferent to Sunny. d) She wanted to protect Sunny. e) She admired Sunny's uniqueness.
42. Why was Clay surprised to see Garnet enter the throne room? a) He thought Garnet was dead. b) He didn't recognize Garnet at first. c) He didn't know Garnet was a princess. d) He thought Garnet was loyal to Queen Scarlet. e) He thought Garnet was his friend.
43. Why did Queen Scarlet claim Garnet wasn't her heir? a) She wanted to disown Garnet. b) She wanted to provoke the dragonets. c) She wanted to confuse the dragonets. d) She wanted to test Garnet's loyalty. e) She wanted to assert her power.
44. What did Queen Scarlet reveal about the fate of other dragonets born on the brightest night? a) They were killed by Burn. b) They were imprisoned by Blister. c) They were destroyed by Queen Scarlet. d) They were hidden by Peril. e) They were rescued by Garnet.
45. Why did the dragonets huddle together after Queen Scarlet left? a) To plan an escape b) To comfort each other c) To discuss what they learned d) To strategize for the arena e) To hide their fear
46. Why did Queen Scarlet decide to prepare Clay for the arena? a) She thought he was the strongest fighter. b) She wanted to punish him for his defiance. c) She wanted to impress the other dragonets. d) She believed he would entertain the audience. e) She wanted to test his loyalty.
47. Why did Clay volunteer himself for the arena? a) He wanted to protect Tsunami. b) He believed he was the best fighter. c) He wanted to prove himself to the queen. d) He thought he could escape during the fight. e) He wanted to save the other dragonets.
48. Why did Tsunami argue with Clay about who should fight in the arena? a) She believed she was the strongest. b) She wanted to protect Clay. c) She didn't trust Queen Scarlet. d) She wanted to protect the other dragonets. e) She felt betrayed by Clay's decision.
49. Why did Queen Scarlet dismiss Tsunami, Blizzard, and Starflight? a) She wanted to isolate Clay. b) She was bored with their arguments. c) She needed time to plan the arena fight. d) She wanted to punish them for defiance. e) She was tired of their presence.

50. What was the main reason Queen Scarlet wanted to have a celebration in two days? a) To honor her hatching day b) To distract her subjects from the war c) To entertain herself with arena fights d) To assert her dominance over the dragonets e) To showcase her power and wealth