1. Match the phrasal verbs with their definitions.

look forward to catch up on drop off sort out choke up
come down with look up to eat out dress up get over
take after get along with

_____ to begin to suffer from a specified illness
_____ to be excited about sth
_____ to dress in smart or formal clothes
_____ to find it difficult to speak, because of the strong emotion
_____ to resemble a parent or ancestor.
_____ to have a friendly relationship with someone _____ to find a solution to something _____ to eat away from home, especially at a restaurant.
_____ to recover from an upsetting experience.
_____ to respect and admire someone
_____ to learn about recent events
_____ to fall asleep

2. Put the phrasal verbs in the context.

look forward to catch up on drop off sort out choke up
come down with look up to eat out dress up get over
take after get along with

1. The Marine Commandos looked exhausted, some of them appeared to be about to _____ to sleep on their feet.
2. Roy is the expert so they gave him a free hand to _____ the problem.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. When you really _____ something it's often an anticlimax when it actually happens.
4. A courtroom lawyer must never _____ under pressure.
5. It took her months to _____ Rupert when he finished the relationship.
6. People usually say I _____ my father on a large scale.
7. Come over for a chat so we can _____ each other's news.
8. I don't really _____ my sister's husband. He always says something very annoying.
9. One of the many advantages of living in New York is that you can _____ at almost any time of day.
10. You don't need to _____ just to go to the pub - jeans and a T-shirt will do.
11. If you feel dizzy and suffocated, it's possible that you have _____ heatstroke.
12. Along with rap artists and basketball players, these are the black men the black boys _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS